E-BOARD SPOTLIGHT

Letricia Brown

Publicity Chair

Hi everyone!

I am a second-year graduate student pursuing my Masters in Occupational Therapy. Being actively involved in numerous student clubs and community service projects as an undergrad made it easy for me to jump right in and become a GSO Department Representative during my first year at NYU. Town hall meetings quickly revealed the importance of having an organization like the GSO to voice the desires, concerns, needs, and praises of students. As the Publicity Chair, I am dedicated to making sure that you have the up-to-date information you need regarding how the GSO can help you succeed academically and to enjoy life as a part of the Steinhardt community.

COMPETITIVE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT REIMBURSEMENT FUND

The GSO's Competitive Professional Development Reimbursement Fund reimburses students who engaged in professional development activities and had to pay out of pocket for room and board, travel, membership fees, etc. The maximum reimbursement is $250 per student, per semester. April 2nd is the deadline for spring applications.

For more information visit http://steinhardt.nyu.edu/gso/prof_dev/ or meet with Treasurer Rasheda during her office hours on Mondays from 5-6:30pm in Pless Hall, room 340B.

STAR AWARDS

Each year, the Steinhardt Graduate Student Organization honors outstanding students, faculty, administrators, graduate assistants, and staff members across Steinhardt. So if there is a member of the Steinhardt community that has positively affected your experience, please nominate them for this special award at <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/2NSBSRV> Nominations are due 04/13/12 at 5PM. Winners will be honored at our May 2nd awards ceremony dinner at the NYU Torch Club. Thank you for helping recognize the amazing work, talent, and commitment of these amazing members of the Steinhardt community.
