FALL 2011, Issue 2

E-BOARD SPOTLIGHT

Elizabeth Misiewicz
Vice President

Hi! My name is Liz, I'm a 2nd year Master's Student in the English Education program from Connecticut. Prior to pursuing my degree at NYU I worked in journalism. Working in this professional environment has given me valuable experience and skills that I draw on as your vice-president. GSO is all about being a part of an enriching community that reaches beyond individualized programs and seeks to bring students together across disciplines so we can all meet and learn from one another. I look forward to working on your behalf to bring forward educational events, socials and more to further engage this sense of community. Feel free to contact me with any questions, have a great year!

Chess Tutors Needed in Public Schools

Chess-in-the-Schools is a nonprofit educational organization in New York that is dedicated to improving academic performance and building self-esteem among inner-city public schoolchildren. The organization is currently seeking volunteers from NYU to tutor students on Mondays and/or Wednesdays from 4:30-6:30pm. This is a great opportunity to immerse yourself in the educational system and the community at large in New York City! If you are interested, please contact RyanHamilton at rch309@nyu.edu.

NYUService Connect

There are an endless number of volunteer opportunities throughout New York City. Whether the reason you do service is to contribute to a cause that you feel passionately about or to develop a sense of community with your peers/other New Yorkers, we encourage you to activate your account and start serving your community today. Visit <http://nyu.edu/service-connect> and log-in with your NetID and NYU Home password to get started!

Manage Your Time, Don't Let Your Time Manage You

Now that we're partway into the semester, you may find that time management is becoming more critical. If you are having difficulty allocating your time and splitting up your workload or you're just looking for some tips to manage your time a little bit better, register for a workshop or schedule an appointment with a counselor at the NYU Student Health Center. For more information, please visit <http://www.nyu.edu/shc/counseling/workshops.html>.
