The New Undergraduate Experience

Welcome to the Steinhardt School of Culture, Education, and Human Development. The New Undergraduate Experience welcomes you to our vibrant community and helps you get connected, be involved, and stay informed.

Get Connected

Online Orientation, mid May–August 2017

- › Get to know your academic advisor, current students, and peers
- › Learn about our history, mission, and values
- › Understand your major and degree requirements
- › Create and register your first semester schedule
- › Discover services and activities to help you grow and develop
- › Share what you've learned with your family to keep them connected

Be Involved

NYU Welcome Week

August 27–September 2, 2017

- › Join us for the Dean's Welcome in Skirball
- › Meet with your academic advisor and orientation leaders
- › Attend the Presidential Welcome and the Reality Show with peers across the University
- › Participate in workshops, activities, and service-learning projects
- › Explore your new home in NYC with peers from all NYU schools

Stay Informed

Enroll in New Student Seminar (SAHS-UE.1)
Fall 2017

- › Continue orientation to the University and School
- › Learn about your major as an aspiring professional in your chosen field
- › Begin to actively explore your role as the newest members of our diverse, global, and inclusive academic community with the help of our New Student Reading and Theme
- › Participate in the Dean's New Student Convocation in mid-October to discuss themes highlighted by our reading and its broader social and historical significance.
