A Brown Bag Discussion on Equity, Disproportionality and Post-Secondary Transitions with Dr. Audrey Trainor and Dr. David Connor

February 27th 2015
11am-1pm

New York University
NYU’s Kimmel Center @ 60 Washington Square S.,
New York, NY 10010, Room 808

REGISTRATION:
http://steinhardt.nyu.edu/metrocenter/center/technical_assistance/program/disproportionality/events

We will have live streaming available for TAC-D affiliated districts at the above link on February 27th.

Dr. Trainor’s research explores the equity and diversity in post-school outcomes, perceptions and experiences of adolescents during the transition from high school to adulthood, and self-determination.

Dr. Connor’s research interests include social, cultural, and historical understandings of disability, learning disabilities, inclusive education, and kindergarten through college classroom pedagogy.