E-BOARD SPOTLIGHT
Mary Morgan Darby Radcliff
SECRETARY

My name is Mary Morgan Radcliff and I am a second year master’s student in the Visual Arts Administration program. Additionally, I am also President of Steinhardt’s Graduate Student Club, Advocates for Cultural Engagement. I am passionate about arts funding and have completed, or am in the progress of completing, development internships at art museums such as the National Gallery of Art, Guggenheim Museum, and The Frick Collection. I chose NYU and Steinhardt because I believe in the excellence of the academic courses, professors, students, and alumni network. Furthermore, Steinhardt’s emphasis on the value of culture is very important to me. My passion for leadership at NYU, as well as the chance to meet outstanding students from different programs within Steinhardt, are what led me to get involved in the Steinhardt GSO community.

As the secretary, I am dedicated to serving as the representative voice of the graduate students in Steinhardt. Please feel free to contact me if you require any further information about GSO and our mission. I am here to help students and will be the contact person and messenger for most of your requests and questions this academic year!
