

Application for Undergraduate Steinhardt Students to Media, Culture, and Communication

Please note: Non-Steinhardt students must apply to our program through the NYU Office of Undergraduate Admissions. All students must complete one full year in the program to which they were originally admitted before they are eligible to transfer. Any student transferring to the MCC major from within Steinhardt must have completed at least one MCC core course* before applying to transfer, receiving a grade of B- or better. We only accept internal transfer students for the fall semester, and require a GPA of 3.0 or above for admission to our program.
