NYU Student Exchange
Faculty Resource Network

Participating Institutions:
- Morehouse College
- Spelman College
- University of Puerto Rico, Rio Piedras
- University of the Sacred Heart in Puerto Rico
- Xavier University of Louisiana
The Student Exchange Program provides opportunities for outstanding undergraduates between NYU and Morehouse College; Spelman College; University of Puerto Rico, Rio Piedras; University of the Sacred Heart in Puerto Rico; and Xavier University of Louisiana.

This unique exchange is offered during the spring semester to sophomores and juniors. Students accepted into the program reside in on-campus housing facilities and participate in honors program activities. NYU students can satisfy major and other degree requirements while studying at one of the host institutions. Selected courses require prior written approval from students’ academic advisers.

UNIVERSITY OF PUERTO RICO, RIO PIEDRAS
The University of Puerto Rico in Río Piedras, established in 1903, is located in the capital city of San Juan, one of America’s oldest cities. In addition to its scenic campus, which includes buildings that are National Historic Sites, UPR boasts a central location that attracts students from all over Latin America, the Caribbean, and the United States mainland. Thirty-two degree programs and 128 majors are offered, from the baccalaureate to the doctoral level, through the 12 schools that comprise the university. www.upmp.edu
