DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC AND PERFORMING ARTS PROFESSIONS

The Department of Music and Performing Arts Professions was established in the Steinhardt School at New York University in 1925. In 1968, the Department merged with the New York College of Music, the oldest conservatory of music in New York City. Since that merger, the Department has functioned as the conservatory of music and has become a locus of research in music technology, scoring for film and multi-media, and the performing arts-in-education at NYU. Today, approximately fifteen hundred students -- baccalaureate to doctoral -- major in classical, jazz and music theatre performance, music composition, film scoring, music technology, music education, music business, music and drama therapy, performing arts administration, dance education and educational theatre guided by three hundred Department faculty. Faculty and students share a spirit of openness and innovation encouraging the pursuit of high artistic goals. Our energy and interests often cross school lines and bring performers and composers together with choreographers, directors, actors, librettists, and film makers in innovative, collaborative projects often reviewed by the New York media. Every night of the week, a master class, recital, concert, lecture, music theatre, dance or dramatic production is presented within the Department. In addition to these multiple Department based performances and events, our campus is surrounded by and blends into the world's center and heartbeat of the performing arts and our students have available the professional opportunities only found in New York City. This setting provides myriad opportunities for outreach programs which resonate with The Steinhardt School's commitment to culture, arts education, and wellness in the urban community. Our alumni have moved on to major performing careers and have secured coveted professional positions in the entertainment industry as well as faculty positions in colleges, conservatories and universities. Distinguished Department alumni include: Jazz great Wayne Shorter, Tony Award winners Cy Coleman and Betty Comden, composer and conductor Tania Leon, music technologist Enoch Light, film composer and Academy Award winner Elmer Bernstein, and Academy Award, Pulitzer Prize and Tony Award winner John Patrick Shanley.
