1. The completed reimbursement application.
(Late, incomplete, or illegible applications will not be considered.)

2. One form of documentation that you will be attending the conference.
The following are acceptable forms of documentation:
   A. Confirmation of registration for conference
   B. Hotel/travel confirmation
   C. Conference program or schedule of events, that lists your name as a presenter, if applicable
   D. Letter from your research mentor, stating that you will, in fact, present at / attend the conference
   E. If you hope to present at a conference, but have not yet heard whether your submission was accepted, you may include a letter stating that. In the letter, please include the date by which you expect to know whether or not your poster was accepted. (This information is typically provided by the conference organizers, and is readily available on their websites.) Once your submission is accepted, however, you will need to provide an additional form of documentation that you will, in fact, be attending the conference (see options A – D above).

3. An itemized budget of costs you expect to incur.
   Please be sure to keep all original receipts. You will be required to submit original receipts documenting all expenses at a later date.

4. A typed narrative statement (not to exceed 300 words).
The statement should provide an overview and explanation of your involvement with the conference, and its importance to your professional development.

   Upon your return from the conference, please submit a revised version of your narrative statement, in which you reflect upon your experiences at the conference.

   Please note that this statement might be posted on the Applied Psychology website.

How to Submit:

1. Please place the application and all required supplementary materials (see below) in a manila envelope.

2. Place the envelope in Dr. Gigliana Melzi’s mailbox. Her box is located on the 8th floor of Kimball Hall (246 Greene Street)

When to Submit:

Applications are due by 5:00 pm on March 10th.
