REQUEST FOR DISCRETIONARY RESEARCH SUPPORT

Recognizing the importance of supporting the faculty the Steinhardt School faculty in their research endeavors and professional training, the Office of Research makes discretionary funds available. Funds may be requested to supplement existing projects, which require additional funding or for new projects that show potential for eventual external grant support. If awarded discretionary funding, Principal Investigators are required to follow proper NYU financial procedures regarding grant expenses as well as IRB procedures. Your request must be submitted to the Office of Research in writing stating the need and amount requested using this application. Funds can be requested up to $1500 per year.

Criteria:

- Demonstrated merit of the project in context of school and department priorities or relevant field;
- Demonstrated level of innovation within Steinhardt, or within the larger community or field;
- Promotion of interdisciplinary or collaborative work;
- Potential to lead to improvement of research;
- Potential to support graduate/doctoral student education;
- Potential to obtain independent/external funding for the project in the future.

PLEASE NOTE THAT IF YOU RECEIVE FUNDING, ALL FINANCIAL PAPERWORK MUST BE FILED AND APPROVED BY PARIS MOURGUES IN THE OFFICE OF RESEARCH
