

NYU | STEINHARDT

METRO CENTER

participates in

AERA 2017

Annual American Education Research Association Conference

Metro Center leadership, associates and affiliated faculty will join Dr. David Kirkland, the Center's Executive Director, as active participants at the annual American Education Research Association (AERA) conference in San Antonio, Texas from April 27 to May 1, 2017. Presentations range from presenting authors, to discussant to symposia, to session chairs.

David Kirkland

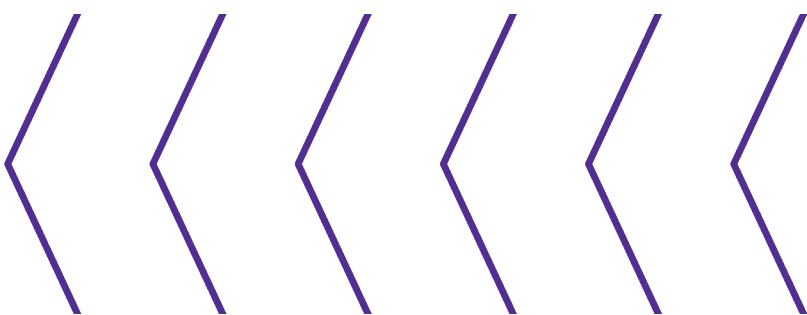

The returning Chair of AERA's Division G: Social Context of Education is also a presenting author and invited speaker.

sj Miller

Metro Center Deputy Director for Education Supports and Services will receive the Division K: Teaching and Teacher Education Exemplary Research Award for the book Teaching, Affirming and Recognizing Trans and Gender Creative Youth (New York: Palgrave Macmillan)

Metro affiliated faculty presenting authors include Noel Anderson, Hua-Yu Sebastian Cherng, Frances Rust, Susan Neuman, and Audrey Trainor. Panel presentations, symposia, paper sessions, roundtable discussants, and session chairs include Fabienne Doucet, sj Miller, Hirokazu Yoshikawa, and David Kirkland.

To See Selected AERA Presentation Abstracts + Metro Participation Schedule

