E-BOARD SPOTLIGHT

Rasheda L. Simpson
Treasurer

Hey Steinhardt!

My name is Rasheda and I'm a master's student in the Human Development and Social Intervention program. I joined the GSO because I wanted to play an active role in the types of workshops, events, and funding opportunities that are available to students on campus, as I believe they play a significant role in our educational experience. My life's passion is to eradicate, or at least lessen, the issues facing impoverished and crime-stricken communities in the United States and the world. I do this through leading service projects throughout the U.S. with school and on my own, as well as through the research I do here at NYU. I hope you take advantage of the services we offer and to see you at our events. Have a great semester!

DALAI LAMA FELLOWSHIP
