Please Note: Non-Steinhardt students must apply to our program through the NYU Office of Undergraduate Admissions. All students must complete one full year in the program to which they were originally admitted before they are eligible to transfer. We require students to have completed at least one course in Applied Psychology with a grade of B or better, as well as a GPA of 2.7 or above, for admission to our program.

Statement of Purpose

Please attach a one page, single-spaced statement of purpose which explains why you wish to transfer to the undergraduate program in Applied Psychology and describes your academic and career goals as related to this major.

Letter of Support

Please include a letter of support from a professor that indicates your academic abilities. This should be written on letterhead and submitted in a sealed envelope.

Submission Deadlines

For consideration for the upcoming fall semester, applications are due by April 1st

For consideration for the upcoming spring semester, applications are due by November 1st

Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis and you will be contacted by email as soon as a decision has been reached. You must obtain clearance to register for the upcoming semester by your current advisor. If you have questions, please contact Amanda Holda, Academic Advisor, via email at amanda.holda@nyu.edu
