

Applied Psychology Master's Program Checklist

Get your NYU ID card
Activate Net ID and NYU Home
Choose an email alias that is based on your name, rather than your Net ID, if you wish ( http://www.nyu.edu/its/email/#address )
Register for classes on Albert (accessed through NYU Home)
Sign up for your program's listserv (accessed through http://steinhardt.nyu.edu/appsycho/lists/ma/counseling )
Find housing and/or roommates in the city. Click here to access the Housing Registry)
Print out booklists at bookstores.nyu.edu two weeks before classes start
Visit the Wasserman Center for Career Development (133 East 13th St., 2nd Floor; http://www.nyu.edu/careerdevelopment/ ) for information on work-study and/or part-time jobs on campus)
Submit immunization records and enroll in or waive student health insurance (find more info at www.nyu.edu/shc ) Please note that the failure to enroll in or waive student health insurance, as well as the failure to supply evidence of the required immunizations prior to the start of the fall semester, will result automatic de-enrollment in your classes with no refund.
Update Albert with any address or telephone changes
Submit any final transcripts to Graduate Admissions (82 Washington Square East, 3 rd Floor, New York, NY 10003) Please not that failure to submit any final transcripts to Graduate Admissions may delay your graduation
Contact Erika Jackson if you wish to transfer any graduate level credits into the program
Create a folder (electronic and paper) to keep copies of the syllabi for each class you take. If you move to another state, you may need to provide a copy of syllabi for licensure. If you enter a Ph.D. program, you may need to provide syllabi to gain course credit