Instructions: Read the reverse side of this form, and fill out the Student Information box above. First, meet with your new major program advisor for an approval signature; second, meet with your old major program advisor for an approval signature. Lastly, return this form for final approval to Undergraduate Advisement at the address above. Undergraduate Advisement will make the change on your student record and will mail copies of the approved form to you, your new program advisor and your former program advisor as well as keep a copy with your records.

By signing this form you and your advisors make changes to your degree requirements by changing your Program of Study (major). Your signature below indicates that you know these requirements and that you understand you must complete these courses in the program subject to the rules and regulations listed in the current bulletin of NYUSteinhardt.

Instruction for Advisors: Please hand deliver (or forward through registered interoffice mail) the student's file to Undergraduate Advisement at the address above upon receipt of the approved program change form.

General Information and Instructions

You must be a current and fully-matriculated undergraduate student to use this form. It can only be used to change from one academic program of study (major) to another within NYUSteinhardt. Students are encouraged to consult with program advisors for information about major requirements.

Undergraduate Advisement will use your current program of study form to re-evaluate all your coursework to meet graduation requirements. You may find that some courses you have already taken can no longer be counted towards your graduation requirements because of your change of major.
